SHRIMATHI DEV KUNVAR NANALAL BHATT

VAISHNAV COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

CHROMEPET, CHENNAI-600044.

(Owned and Managed by Cork Industries Charities Trust)

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

Shrimathi Devkunvar Nanalal Bhatt Vaishnav College for Women was started in 1968 with the generous donation of 10 acres of land by our Late Founder Chairman Shri Nanalal Bhatt and 6 lakhs donated by Cork Industries Charities Trust. The College is named after the Late Founder Chairman's wife Smt. Devkunvar. This college is the first women's college in Kancheepuram District, Tamil Nadu.

The initial strength of students was 240 in three P.U.C sections with staff strength of 20. Self-supporting courses under Evening structure was started in the year 1984-85 at the Under Graduate level, in 2001 at the Post Graduate level and M.Phil. Programme in 2011. The College has carved a niche in women's education by upgrading its status as a Research Institute in 2012. The College was accredited with 'A' grade by NAAC in 2003. The Autonomous Status was conferred by UGC and confirmed by University of Madras in June 2006. The College was re-accredited with 'A' grade by NAAC in April 2011 and extension of autonomy granted in 2013.

Besides routine academic work, the college also offers excellent training in extracurricular activities. We believe in beginning early to plan, guide and direct the career path of our students. The placement cell works for excellent growth of the college.
