

Hindi Association

Guest Lecturer in 'Women Empowerment' - 2016

Department of Hindi arranged for a Guest lecture session in Hindi on 14/10/2016. Mrs. Sandhya Purohit from Jodhpur, Rajasthan was the Guest invited for giving special Lecture. Mrs. Sandhya Purohit is basically a writer. She is also a social worker cum politician. Her speech threw light on 'Women Empowerment'. She emphasized that women should take active part in social life. She highlighted the point that Women naturally has more will power, patience and perseverance. Women has a natural instinct that strives hard for perfection. Women can not only become a good home maker, but she can also give her hands in building our Nation. Mrs. Sandhya made a note that Women can contribute to the nation either through social service or by playing a responsible role in the Politics. In either way not just the society, but Women also gets empowered.

This motivational lecture session was very informative and useful for our students.

Department of Hindi (Day)

The Department of Hindi (day) conducted the Literary Association meeting on 16-02-2016 at 11.30 a.m. Our Chief Guest Dr.Smt.Lakshmi subramanian, Dept. of Hindi, Loyola College, Nungambakkam, Chennai graced the occasion by her august presence.

On behalf of our Hindi Department, Hindi Association Secretary, Nirmala., II B.A(Eng) delivered the welcome note. Dr.Lakshmiiji, delivered a special lecture in detail on the Importance of Humour in day to day life and explained how humour and satire function as effective tools in message conveying. She also cited various illustrations from Modern Hindi Literature where satire is efficiently intertwined to hit the target i.e. to pin point the irrelevancies via humour

The meeting came to an end with the vote of thanks rendered by Kumari., I yr B.Sc(PBPBT) followed by the National Anthem.

Department of Hindi (Eve)

Department of Hindi (eve) has organized a meeting on 30-12-2015 at 1.00 p.m. Our Chief Guest Mrs. Srabani Department of Hindi, Stella Marys College, Chennai, has consented to grace the occasion.

On behalf of our college staff members and students, Hindi Secretary Kruthika (II yr B.Sc (N&D)) delivered the welcome note. Mrs. Srabani addressed the gathering and delivered speech on 'Career options in Hindi'. Vivid career options available in various fields were discussed. She also told that Hindi being the National Language has its own importance and value and it is in the second place among the most popular and widely spoken languages. She spoke about the importance of Hindi in the world arena. She also informed the students about the Diploma courses like P.G.D.T (post graduation diploma in translation) and Diploma courses in Journalism which can enhance their employability . She also emphasized that Hindi unites the whole nation . Students were enlightened about Hindi , its value & importance and the career options available in the field of Hindi .

Meghna Singh B.Sc.(I yr Comp.Science) presented her poem about "My Childhood" (Mera Bachpan). The meeting came to an end with vote of thanks rendered by Pragathi Pani(I yr B.I.S.M.) followed by the National Anthem.